CURRICULUM VITAE

NAME Dr Jonathan G Kydd
NATIONALITY British
LANGUAGES English (mother tongue)

EXPERTISE

- A development economist with a focus on rural and agricultural development. Long track record as a researcher, teacher and consultant in Africa particularly, but not exclusively, Central and West Africa. Substantial experience in Bangladesh and in Eastern and Central Europe (during the early years of transition to market economy). More limited experience in East Asia and Central and South America. The intellectual framework for research in recent years has been new institutional economics because of its ability to illuminate issues holding back business development.
- A university leader and senior manager focussed on internationalisation of higher education with a strong focus on access (i.e., reasonable user cost), high standards and innovative pedagogy.
- Policy advisor and non-executive director. With senior experience in major commercial, government, political, educational and charitable organisations.
- Broad spectrum generalist experience of essential management skills for leadership in large organisations: e.g. financially literate at the level expected of a non-accountant; senior experience of issues in IT; media relations, internal communications and human resources.

EDUCATIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

- 1985 DPhil (i.e., PhD), University of Sussex. Title: "Agricultural Development in Malawi since Independence: Policies and Structural Change". Doctoral studies undertaken as a part-time occasionally resident student.
- 1975 Postgraduate Certificate in Education. University of London External Award.
- 1974 University of London, School of Oriental and African Studies. MSc in Economics of Poor Countries and their Development. Funded by a competitively awarded SSRC Masters Award.
- 1972 BA in Economics and History. Keele University: at that time Keele BA degrees took four years with a compulsory interdisciplinary foundation year.
